

BRING SOME COLOUR INTO THE WORLD

#TravelisHope

Dear Travellers,

Hope you and your family are safe. What started as testing times for the travel industry has now manifested into a test of human resilience. Especially for those of us with kids at home, keeping them engaged is a task by itself right now. One thing that has worked wonders across age groups has been colouring - be it Mandalas, canvas or just plain and simple colouring! And we thought, what better way to quench some of that wanderlust than colouring iconic travel images with your little and/or loved ones!

We hope, you have a lot of fun bringing these pictures to life :) Once the globetrotting virus comes to a halt, we're sure, all of us are going to explore the world with a renewed passion because at the end of the day—we firmly believe #TravelsHope. Till then, stay safe and happy colouring.
