Day 7	like Gol and Geilo. In Myrdal, you'll switch trains to the Flåm Railway for an incredible 20 km ride with a 900-metre descent to the beautiful village of Flåm. Here, you'll have free admission to the Flåm Railway Documentation Centre, located right beside Flåm Station, where you can learn about the construction of the world's steepest railway line.
	[Fjord cruises] From Flåm, you'll be transported by boat onto the Aurlandsfjord and into the World Heritage-listed Nærøyfjord, the narrowest fjord in Europe. This is perhaps the most beautiful and wildest arm of the Sognefjord, with its tall mountains, mighty waterfalls and small farms clinging to the steep mountainsides. The boat then takes you to Gudvangen, from where you'll be transported by bus up Stalheimskleiva, Northern Europe's steepest stretch of road. After a thrilling ride around 13 hairpin bends and a brief pause to enjoy the view from Stalheim Hotel, you will continue to Voss to board the train for the last stretch of the journey to Bergen.			Bergen
Day 8	[Explore Bergen on your own] After breakfast, spend the day at leisure exploring Bergen on your own. You can opt to visit some of the highlights of the city such sights as the Maria Church, King Håkon's Hall and the Rosenkrantz Tower as well as a panoramic view over the city from the Fjellveien Road ("the mountain road"). Alternatively, Get active and see a stunning swath of the Norwegian natural landscape on a self-guided mountain bike tour outside of Bergen from Mt. Ulriken to Mt. Fløyen. With a GPS and an app, ride your way through the countryside, up and down mountain and even take a break to eat the lunch package that is provided. Go at your own pace on the eight-mile (13-kilometer) course. When you're done with the 4-6-hour journey, take the Fløibanen Funicular and Ulriken cable cars down the mountain.			Bergen
	[Flight back home] After breakfast, checkout of your hotel in Bergen and transfer to the airport for your flight back home with wonderful memories of your trip.
